County School Board

Secretaries Get Pay Raise

The Hancock County School Board voted Tuesday to raise salaries of secretaries employed by the Board at Gulfview and Charles B. Murphy schools to $400 a month in a move to equalize pay structures for secretaries in the school system.

The board also took action to authorize county school superintendent Kenneth G. McCarty to invite Director of the State Building Commission, T. H. Nayler and Wallace Merrill of the Secondary Department of Instructional Education in Jackson, to meet with the Board at its next meeting to make recommendations and discuss construction of a new high school at Gulfview.

Two members of the Hancock North Central P.T.A. presented the board with a resolution adopted by the P.T.A. Sept. 6 calling for the board "to make an immediate study of the present and future needs of the educational facilities at Hancock North Central and take immediate steps to implement these needs through a bond issue." Specific complaints of the P.T.A. membership centered on problems which the group said resulted from increased enrollment at the school. "With the present bonded indebtedness being paid off at a rapid rate and the increased property assessment on the increase we cannot understand why our children and their educational future should continue to be jeopardized because of cramped and inadequate class rooms, the lack of lab equipment and other teaching aids, inadequate lunch room facilities, and one small gym to serve the physical educational needs of 1300 students."

The group expressed cognizance of the pressures facing the board members and held out an invitation to board members to share with them any problems that they might face.

James Rester said that it was felt by the P.T.A. that the board might appreciate a request coming from the parents who feel and realize some of the needs of HNC. The board, he emphasized, had the full backing of their group.

President of the Board Horace Davis said that the board had plans drawn for a renovation of the school cafeteria, but a new lunch room had more recently been discussed.

"We realize we need another high school in the county," he said. "We are certainly going to do everything possible to better our school system."

Mrs. Claire Mitchell asked if there were some reason why coin operated vending machines could not be put into the school. Davis said that vending machines used to be in the schools and the board had encountered complaints from some parents about children filling up on candy and snacks instead of eating a regular lunch. Mrs. Mitchell said some students, however, were presently missing their lunch altogether for one reason or another and if there were vending machines in the school the students could at least get "something" to eat.

The board said they were not opposed to the machines being in the school if the parents as a whole wanted them and if they met with the approval of the school principal J.A. O'Neal.

Financial consultant for the board Edward LeVasseur informed the board that a question had arisen on some of the contracts the board had entered into whereby the board had been charged state sales tax. LeVasseur said that he was trying to get a ruling from the state tax office to clarify the disputed tax base. LeVasseur said that he was of the opinion that the school system was exempt from paying any and all state sales taxes.

The board approved a schedule of drug education for the county schools prepared by Ebner Ferguson, drug specialist for the school system. Ferguson will coordinate classroom instruction with teachers throughout the current school year.

Coast Officials Press For Loan Forgiveness

by Dan Barber
Echo Staff Writer

A resolution to actively seek passage of a state senate bill to forgive disaster loans made by the state was unanimously adopted by the Coast Municipal Officers Association of Jackson, Harrison and Hancock Counties at their monthly meeting Monday night.

The association heard Gulfport Mayor C. L. Bullock, a former state representative from Harrison County, outline what steps were presently being taken in the senate to seek forgiveness of the $3 million loan made by the state to coast municipalities and counties after the destruction of Hurricane Camille in August 1969.

Bullock told the Association that the bill, which was introduced to the senate by state senator Ben Stone of Harrison County, stood a good chance of passage in the 1974 regular session of the Mississippi Legislature. The bill is presently assigned to the appropriations committee of the senate.

Earlier attempts to pass similar bills have failed. "We have been introducing bills to forgive these loans since 1969," Bullock told the assembled officers. "We knew then," he said, "that to have to pay off these loans would be disastrous."

Bullock said that the coastal area was barely off its knees.

"People from all over the state are supporting the bill this time," Bullock said, "and I am optimistic that we will get it passed. We are looking for support from the governor too."

Bullock told the association that he hoped that this loan would be looked upon by the state as an investment. "We are going in saying, 'Besides the point that we need this, let us show you what we have done with what you gave us. We took what you gave us and instead of simply restoring what was lost and destroyed, we today are paying nearly twice the amount in state sales tax that we did before.'

In addition to the $5 million loan that the state made available, a $5 million grant was also given which does not require repayment.

Disaster loans and grants have been given other portions of the state in more recent years. Following widespread tornado damage in 1971 the Mississippi delta was given state money in the form of loans and grants. Portions of the state also received assistance after flood waters caused heavy losses this year.

After the destruction of Hurricane Camille, Bullock said that he told the House of Representatives that "our people will rise again, but they need assistance. But whatever you offer in the way of assistance we'd like you to call an investment."

Following Bullock's address to the association, Pass Christian Mayor Steve Sauder read a formal resolution to the members. After a motion to adopt the resolution carried, Bullock said that should the bill be passed the municipalities would probably be required to pay only the interest on the loan.

A motion also passed to authorize the president of the association to appoint a committee to lobby for passage of the bill in the legislature.

Bullock told the association that he

Information received from Michael Schwall, 23, arrested Sept. 25 by Hancock Sheriff Sylvan Ladner, resulted in the eventual arrest of others implicated in a string of burglaries dating as far back as February.

Schwall was arrested by sheriff's deputies in connection with the Sept. 24 attack of two elderly women in their Nicholson Ave. home about 1 a.m. Mrs. Laura Prevett and Miss Jeanne Tirado, both 73, were hospitalized with injuries received when, frightened by noises in the house, they ran out the front door and were attacked by an unknown assailant.

Placed under arrest within the next few days were Leroy and Elvira Simoneaux, husband and wife operators of a Highway 90 bait and tackle shop, Ricky Allen, 18, and three 16-year-old juvenile boys, all Bay-Waveland area residents.

Under interrogation by the sheriff's department, the youths admitted to alleged involvement in a lengthy list of burglaries which included Bordages Fishing Camp at Bayou Caddo, the Cievas Junction restaurant, Travelrest Motel, Exclusive Laundromat, Waveland Roller Rink, Demoran's Appliance store, Schuffert Motors, St. Augustine Seminary, Central Package Liquor Store and Torgerson's Service Station.

Merchandise such as television sets, radios, tires, boats and motors as well as cash were also stolen from a number of private homes.

Authorities are still searching for an 18-year-old and a 15-year-old youth in connection with the robberies.

Sheriff Ladner said in statements to the police one of the members of the ring admitted to the sexual mutilation of goats belonging to a resident of Old Chapman Road. Parts of the animals' bodies were cut off with a knife and the animals left to bleed.

Officers assisting in the investigation were Deputies Letitia Garriga, Fred Necaise, Paul Bernard, Roy Peterson, Leo Woods, Aux. Leo Jennings and Constable Perniciaro.

Teenagers Pull Armed Robbery

Two white males walked into the DeLisle Grocery and Standard Oil Service Station at 9 a.m. yesterday morning, pulled knives and forced Miss Kay Netaice to give them all of the money she had in her cash register before fleeing in a Ford Pinto automobile.

Harrison County law officials said that an auto containing three 16-year-old youths answering the description of the suspects was stopped at Highway 90 and May Drive in Pass Christian at 11:45 a.m. by Harrison County investigating officer Mevan Necaise, Constable Gene McCree and Deputy Sheriff Danny Holland and the occupants arrested.

Officers said that approximately $40 to $50 and the knives used in the holdup were recovered from the youths' auto.

The youths, who gave St. Petersburg, Fla. as their address, were being held by the Harrison County Sheriff's Department last night.

The arrests last week of four adults and three juveniles led to the discovery of an extensive nine-member burglary ring which had been operating in the Bay-Waveland area for the past nine months.

The arrests involved the theft of several thousand dollars worth of private property.

Four Injured In Caesar Rd. Crash

A two-car collision on the Caesar-Dedaux Road Monday about 8 p.m. resulted in serious injuries to four persons, one a seven-year-old boy.

According to a sheriff's department report, a 1973 Ford sedan, driven by Judy Cuevas, 26, Crystal River, Fla., entered the opposite lane of traffic causing a head-on collision with a 1971 Chevrolet, driven by James A. Davis, 39, of Picayune. The accident occurred near the Catahoula Bridge.

Passengers in the Davis car were his wife, Ruby, 43, and the Davis' seven-year-old son, James, Jr. All four persons were taken by ambulance to Crosby Memorial Hospital in Picayune, where the senior Davis was treated and released. The other three were admitted to the hospital.

Investigating officers were Sheriff's Deputy Fairley Neceas and Constable Sam Perniclaro.

Earlier in the week, one man was injured as a result of a two-vehicle collision occurring Oct. 4 at the Highway 90 and Clermont Harbor Road intersection.

Jaycee Wives Learn First Aid

Edward Friloux, Diamondhead fire chief, presented a program on First Aid Basics at the Bay St. Louis Jaycee Hall October 2.

The program sponsored by the Bay St. Louis Jaycee Wives covered first aid in the home. According to the newly revised first aid course, "breathing is the single most life threatening hazard," Friloux told the group. Other life threatening hazards are bleeding, poison, shock, burns, and broken bones.

Friloux instructed the group in the basic things to do in an emergency before getting to a hospital.

Prior to the First Aid program Jaycee Wives held a regular monthly meeting.

Plans were finalized by program chairman Mrs. Mimi Rhodes for a showing of Bicycle and Walking Safety films.

The next meeting of the Jaycee Wives Organization will be at 7 p.m. November 13th. This will be a work meeting for the Christmas Bazaar. Art designs by Mrs. Linda Burroughs to be used as display table skirts will be made. Members are reminded to bring paints and brushes for this project.

Meeting activities were concluded with refreshments served by Mrs. JoAnn Lagasse and Mrs. Pat Seuzeneau, co-chairmen for the First Aid Program presentation.

The next community project planned by the wives group will be a Christmas Bazaar.

Poetry Festival Set At Jackson State

Dr. Margaret Walker Alexander, poet, novelist and director of the Institute for the Study of History, Life and Culture of Black People at Jackson State College announces a Phillips Wheatley Poetry Festival to be held at the College November 4-7.

The Festival will celebrate 200 years since the publication of the first book by a Black person in America—the poems of Phillis Wheatley published in late 1773 in London, England.

Invited to participate in the Festival are 20 outstanding Black women poets who have published and are publishing books of poetry.

These twenty women poets include: Gwendolyn Brooks, a Pulitzer Prize winner and author of nine books of poetry in addition to several other books; and Nikki Giovanni, the winner in the Youth Division of the Ladies' Homes Journal contest for the Woman of the Year Award. Nikki is the author of five books and two best-selling records. She will appear in concert with a gospel choir.

Other women include: June Jordan, author of four books; and Alice Walker, novelist and author of two books of poetry. Audre Lorde, Mari Evans, Sarah Fabio, Margaret Danner and Naomi Madgett, all authors of two or more books of poetry, will appear on the program.

A very young group of published poets including Johari Amini, Marion Alexander, Sonia Sanchez, Julia Peters, Linda Bragg, Malika Wangara, Carolyn Rodgers, Lucille Clifton, Gloria Oden and Carol Gregory Clemmons will also participate in the Festival. Each one is a publishing poet with one or more books to her credit.

The host poet, Margaret Walker, is the author of a best-selling novel, "Jubilee," and three books of poetry. She is serving as chairman of the Phillis Wheatley Festival.

The Festival opens on Sunday, November 4, and continues through Wednesday, November 7. The program includes the poets reading their own works in several recitals, concerts and assembly groups. A book fair and autograph party on Tuesday afternoon, November 6, will be followed by a one-woman show at 8:30 p.m. with Vinie Burrows portraying the life of Phillis Wheatley.

Wednesday morning, November 7, a panel of editors, teachers and scholars will assess the critical reputation and historical significance of Miss Wheatley.

The panel participants include: Ida Lewis, editor of Encore Magazine; Doris Saunders, editor of Johnson Publishing Company Book Division; Paula Giddings, editor of Howard University Press; Dorothy Porter, director of the Moorland Collection, Howard University Library; Margaret Burroughs, author and curator of the DuSable Art Museum in Chicago; and Margaret Walker.

The Festival is funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities and is an official event of the Bicentennial Celebration Commission.

Boy Scouting And The United Fund

A boy is a bank where you may deposit your most precious treasures—the hard won wisdom, the dreams for a better world, a boy can guard and protect these, and perhaps invest them wisely and win a profit—a profit larger than you ever dreamed.

A boy will inherit your world. All your work will be judged by him. Tomorrow he will take your seat in Congress, own your company, run your town. The future is his, and through him, the future is yours.

Anyone would want this boy to have the best in training, to be in the best position to serve himself, his community and nation. We want him to have a happy home life, the best schools possible, to be in church or synagogue regularly, and spend his extra-curricular time in the most constructive way.

Boy Scouts of America is an agency, given a Charter by Congress of the United States, with a program for the free time that enhances the basic factors in a boy's life—home, school and church. The program is used to develop character, build citizenship, and train physically through these basic institutions.

The Boy Scout movement is one of the very few fixtures in American life that has remained the same over the past 63 years. Its ideals and methods of application are basically as they were when put into operation by the founder, Lord Baden Powell.

Since Scouting became a part of the American scene in 1910 more than 55 million American boys and countless volunteers in practically every community in America have participated in its programs which include Cubbing, Scouting and Exploring. These programs are sponsored by religious institutions, civic groups, farm organizations and parent-teacher organizations.

A nominal fee is paid by the boy to participate in the program anywhere in the country. The fee is deliberately kept at a nominal amount so that no boy is denied the privilege of being a Scout.

It has always been the policy of the Boy Scouts of America to encourage each boy to earn his own money to pay for his uniform, badges and troop dues, to encourage him in personal thrift and paying his own way. In order to meet the costs of local Council supervision, training and services to units, scouting is supported by the United Givers Fund.

How much can you afford to give? Let's consider what your money is buying.

When a boy becomes a Scout his pin is traditionally worn upside down until he performs his first good turn. He may then wear his pin right-side up but he is honor bound to "help other people at all times." In keeping with that tradition Scouts in this area, acting individually and as groups, participate in Flag Day ceremonies, usher at Football games, distribute posters for United Fund, Cancer Society, National Cystic Fibrosis, National Tuberculosis—and many others. Their daily good turns go largely unnoticed and unmentioned, but if half of the 1,000 boys in Scouting in this area do one good turn each day, in a year that's 365,000 good turns. That's a lot of kindness brought into our daily lives.

In 1911, long before the word ecology became a part of everyone's vocabulary, Boy Scouts launched their first Annual National Cleanup Campaign. Each year new conservation projects have been added. Millions of trees have been planted. Campaigns have been fought against the fly, hookworm and mosquito. Beaches, highways, church, school yards and public parks have been cleared of tons of litter, left there by those with a lesser sense of responsibility.

There are more than 1,000 boys participating in Scouting programs in this area. By the end of 1973 it is hoped there will be many more.

There are more than 7,000 boys of Scout age in Cypress District. That means we reach only one out of seven boys despite the fact that Scouting is available to every boy. There are programs for the blind, deaf, physically handicapped, mentally retarded and emotionally disturbed.

America gets its strength and drive from its manpower, and America's manpower begins with boy power. Nobody molds boy power like the Boy Scouts of America.

For the past two summers a troop of 30 emotionally disturbed and retarded boys

Doctor Warns.... Flu Season Is At Hand

Flu season is at hand once again, and the State Board of Health reminds the public to be prepared by getting properly immunized.

Dr. Durward Blakey, Director of the Division of Preventable Disease Control, provided the following information this week concerning the flu menace.

To be completely immunized against all types of flu—two shots are necessary this year.

"The bivalent vaccine now available is highly purified and gives protection against two virus strains—the Massachusetts Strain and the England Strain, commonly referred to as the London Flu," said Dr. Blakey.

"However, for protection against a new variant of Hong Kong Flu, another shot should be given one week later.

Popularly referred to as the "New Hong Kong Flu," this new strain "appeared too late in the season last year to be included in the bivalent vaccine," said Dr. Blakey.

In general, annual influenza vaccination is recommended for persons of all ages who have such chronic conditions as heart disease, lung disease and diabetes. Older persons should definitely be considered for immunization.

Jail Windows Are A No-No

A Bay St. Louis man found Tuesday night that giving a friend cigarettes can be costly.

Glen A. Fayard, 20, was caught by County Special Agent Paul Bernard in the act of passing cigarettes to a friend through the barred windows of the County Youth Detention Center Tuesday night about 10 p.m. Fayard was on the outside, the friend was on the inside.

Now, Fayards is on the inside under a $100 bond, charged with loitering around the jail and passing articles to prisoners. Fayard got to keep the cigarettes.

THOUSANDS TO QUALIFY FOR NEW SUPPLEMENT

Thousands of persons in the Hancock County area may qualify for benefits January 1, 1974, under the new Federal Supplemental Income program. If you are blind, disabled or age 65 or older and have low income, you may be one of the many who can qualify. To find out more about this new federal program, complete the questionnaire shown below, mail it to the Gulfport Social Security office immediately. "There is nothing further you have to do at this time," a spokesman said.

"Being prompt helps a lot. The Social Security office will get in touch with you in a couple of weeks."

Dear Sir:
Please permit a member of the Humane Society to inform the public through the media of your most interesting paper in Re: The activities of the Society, its Animal Wardens, and its Shelter Havens maintained by the Cities of Bay St. Louis and Waveland. The Bay Warden, Mr. Mike Bailey, very efficient and energetic, has two beautiful young Labrador Retrievers; some healthy friendly puppies, would make loyal pets. Thank Heaven these animals have a yard, where they can eat green grass, so as to satisfy their natural medicinal needs. Few people know that dogs and cats enjoy a treat to green grass now and then. Friday is the last day for adoption, so hurry dear people, before these lovely creatures are put to death.

Please contact Mike Bailey at 7-9221 or the Mayor's Secretary 7-9092; he will escort you to the Shelter, or inform you how to get there to choose a pet.

The Waveland dog, Haven has a cooperative busy animal Warden, Mr. Orey Bourgeois. There are fourteen sad eyed lonely creatures begging for a home, before the final doom of extermination.

Please hurry kind friends, call Orey Bourgeois at 7-7853 A.M. he will escort you to the Animal Shelter.

Thanking you for publication

Dear Sir:

Dix and I would like to ignore the letter from Mrs. Myers printed in your paper last week and stand on our reputation but we feel obligated to other businesses that may be placed in the same position.

Our Traveler Motel is clean and open for inspection at anytime, our prices are in line with motels our size in the area. On Sept. 1st the room in question, a four bed unit, was rented to four people, if Mrs. Myers registered she did so using the name of Mrs. H.P. Martin of Baton Rouge. The room was definitely reserved for her otherwise being the last one available in the area on a holiday week-end, as she stated herself, it certainly would have rented long before she could pack her car and drive from Long Beach in a downpour of rain.

After they had been in the room for sometime one phoned for room service for food; Lee explained we didn't handle food orders but recommended a nearby restaurant. Not too long after this the person registering as Mrs. Martin but now signs her complaint as Mrs. Myers came to the office demanding her money back. No respectable motel that I know of rents motel units "by the hour", once a room is occupied it is classed as "used" and left for the maids to clean next day. Motels have guide rules set down and the one covering this clearly states no refund is necessary once a room has been occupied with the exception of failure of any major facility.

Let me state here that the air conditioner was working, Del Wilcox has looked after our units for years and is very faithful in keeping them in good working condition. The above mentioned rule is set down especially to protect the motels from people who would take advantage and use the room to refresh themselves or until a storm stops them from making up a complaint in order to receive a refund. The only mistake our son made was in refunding the $20, as this room was a "lost room" to us, once occupied. We aren't thieves, just honest, hard working people who hate to be taken advantage of.

Our complaint is not with Mrs. Myers, she evidently hasn't traveled enough to know motel rules and probably upset over her terminated visit with her sister. My sister would have pulled out couches, sleeping bags, etc. had we found ourselves without room accommodations. Our complaint is with a newspaper that didn't take time to confirm the facts. We have been in business in this area for fourteen years and feel we deserve the courtesy of at least a phone call on this complaint. Our many friends that have spoken to us about this article haven't questioned our ethics only shown concern that a local paper would publish a letter from an obviously disturbed person without confirmation.

We strongly feel that for the past few years the Echo has done very little to help this community to grow in pride, strength and love. Every week some hard working official is cruelly criticized; I have yet to see any praise given for the many good things they do. Wouldn't it be wonderful, if even on a trial basis of a month, the Echo would print complimentary articles. Imagine how much harder everyone would work to live up to praise instead of having to work under the stress of continuous criticism. Maybe we could make the Bay-Waveland area a good example for other small towns. I am sure the reporters wouldn't have to work any harder to find out about the pleasant, charitable and happy events that take place here every day and are never reported. What do the rest of you readers think, should the Sea Coast Echo give it a try, phone 487-5473 and let them know how you feel.

Dix and Anne Ashman

(ED. NOTE: Of 22 State and National Press Association awards the Echo has won in the past two years, well more than half were for laudatory community service articles and pictures. Apparently, we aren't all bad.)

Colling's Corner

By E.S. Colling

There are about as many Lover's Leaps as there are hamburger stands, but Mississippi is unique in having a princely lover who not only didn't leap but who drowned himself and all his people—according to legend.

If you were to go a little way up the Pascagoula River past the old Spanish fort, you would come to a calm and lovely stretch of water where at certain times you might think you hear singing, or at least humming. It seems that a long, long time ago, when the small tribe of Pascagoula Indians dwelt here, the princess of the neighboring Biloxi tribe fell in love with the young chieftain of the Goulas and eloped with him to the camp on the shore of the Pascagoula river. The Biloxi brave set out with all his warriors to reclaim her and when they came to the river's edge, the Goulas outnumbered six to one, decided that the game was up.

The whole tribe including the young chieftain and his bride, thereupon waded into the river, singing the death chant, and all were drowned. The tribe was extinct, but the spirit of the people continue to hover over the water at the place of the tragedy, still singing or murmuring their death song. That is why the Pascagoula is called the Singing River—and also why there are no more Pascagoula Indians.

Which reminds us (for no known reason) of another happier legend, this one on Lake Borgne, just across the State border. Long ago, fishermen discovered that the little strait between Borgne and Pontchartrain was just about the best fishing ground in these parts. When the railroad came through from New Orleans to the east, a score of shacks sprang up where the rails crossed the strait close to the border, and the twang of the casting line was heard all day long. The pescadores came down the dirt road from the city and by wooded lanes from Pearlington and other Mississippi towns, and soon a small village with an eating place and a tiny store or two became a regular train stop.

But the village needed a name, and one evening—probably over a beer to celebrate a good catch—some unremembered humorist gave it the perfect dubbing—Chef Menteur, or the place of the Big Liar. And for a hundred years the little village and the road leading to it from the city (now Highway 90) have honored the patron saint of fisherman.

joined the private enterprise system. And because it is no longer part of the federal government, Congress no longer has direct control over it.

Many of my colleagues in the House of Representatives share the feeling that, perhaps, it is time to bring the Postal Service back under direct control of the Congress. At any rate, I think it is time we give that proposal serious consideration along with any other suggestions that could provide improvements.

Take its use of money, for example. Malign and criticized for inept service in recent years, Postal Service officials recently unveiled their newest strategy for improving mail service.

Increased postal rates! That's the typical bureaucrat's answer to everything. If something is wrong, pump more money into it as fast as possible.

To give you an idea of the tone of letters we've been getting criticizing the Postal Service, let me quote from a petition signed recently by 20 Harrison County residents:

"We, the undersigned concerned citizens deplore the poor mail service as provided by the U.S. Postal Service which came into existence in the Spring of 1971 with great promises of more efficient mail service. The contrary of efficiency has been the case. Therefore, we feel that now is the time to take action."

"Naturally, we oppose Postmaster E.T. Klassen's request for a Postal Rate increase and likewise oppose any increase in pay for U.S. Postal Service employees at this time."

The authors of the petition went on to propose an in-depth study of the U.S. Postal Service's operational procedure since 1971 and "from this study devise a long range plan in keeping with population trends in congested areas to establish new Post Offices and Postal Stations to give us, the people, the service we are paying for."

That, to me, is the heart of their argument. Taxpayers have been paying for service they have never received.

Recent surveys show that the public is willing to pay for service. But when they are asked to pay ten cents instead of eight cents for a first-class stamp, they want to know why. And they have every right to know—especially since many feel they haven't been getting eight cents worth of first-class service.

The proposed increases would jump air mail from 11 to 13 cents. Other classes of mail would increase between six and 38.6 percent when the new rates go into effect January 5, 1974.

What makes their action even more disturbing is the fact that they have cut back on the number of employees while increasing pay for higher grade civil service employees. That move, coupled with the lack of provisions to hire additional workers is sending many average citizens into orbit.

Let me make it clear that the problem is not at the local level, but at the national level where bureaucrats still run the show. There is little that a Postmaster in South Mississippi can do when his purse strings are controlled in Washington.

While we need to recognize the fact that the Postal Service is handling more mail than ever, we still cannot overlook the steady decline in service since 1971 when the Postal Service

We are nearing the close of Fire Prevention Week and again urge business establishments to check their premises for fire hazards. This is a fine time to thank the Hancock County Firemen's Association for their tremendous progress in our County.

In order to present a consistent policy from the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, we will forward a copy of any complaint received in our office along with our reply to the business involved in the complaint. This will give the business the opportunity to clear up any misunderstanding with the customer, should they choose to do so.

County Agent's Notes

John W. Smith, County Agent

OVERSEEDING PERMANENT PASTURE

Ryegrass overseeded on grazed down permanent pasture sods can contribute substantially, if properly managed, to a full season forage program according to John W. Smith, County Agent.

Permanent pastures of bahiagrass, coastal and common bermuda grass are ideal for this program. Usually, only one-half to two-thirds of the permanent sod area should be overseeded as these overseeded fields must be heavily grazed in April and early May to minimize the damage to the permanent grass. If overseeded ryegrass is allowed to grow up in the spring, it will reduce the early summer production from the permanent grass. When the ryegrass gets ahead of the cattle in April, concentrate animals to get close grazing; then let excess acreage grow up and harvest for hay around May 1.

Following either method of renovation, sow 25 to 40 lbs. of seed (40 lbs. where fertilized and seed mixed) per acre in late October, harrow to cover seed and cultipack if possible. Usually overseeded ryegrass will be ready to graze in early January. Apply 60 to 70 lbs. actual nitrogen (200 lbs. ammonium nitrate or equivalent) at planting so the grass can get maximum growth before onset of cold weather. Phosphate and potash for the whole year can be applied at this time. Where a complete fertilizer is needed, 500 lbs. per acre of 13-13-13 or equivalent is suggested.

Overseeded pastures should not be grazed after February and must be grazed heavily in April and early May to keep the ryegrass from setting back the permanent grass. This allows pastures not overseeded to get started and be ready for grazing while cattle are concentrated on the ryegrass. Alternate fields so that no area is overseeded over 2 years out of three for minimum damage to the permanent sod.

This program allows us to increase our cow grazing-days from a pasture acre for brood cows and serves as a back-up for a stocker grazing program.

HANCOCK COUNTY FAIR

Fair time is almost here and we are hoping for the best Fair yet, - in quality as well as quantity. This week I want to put emphasis on some of the general rules for the entries. Only jars with brand names blown into them are specifically made to withstand the high temperature and pressure necessary for canning. This is the reason that only brand name jars will be accepted in the Fair. When company is coming most of us put out a little extra effort to make our homes clean and attractive, so it is with Fair entries. We make sure they are "show-off" quality.

Some general rules are as follows:

(a) All entries must have been produced (canned or made) in 1973 and never entered in Hancock County Fair before;

(b) Competition limited to residents of Hancock County;

(c) No exhibitor awarded more than one prize in any one class;

(d) All entries must be the work of and belong to the exhibitor;

(e) Whether an article is of acceptable show quality is left to the discretion of the superintendent;

(f) All non-perishable items may be entered from 2 p.m. - 5 p.m. on Monday October 29 and perishable items from 8 a.m. to noon on Tuesday, October 30th. Judging will take place on Tuesday afternoon and the judge's decision is final. I am asking that some comment as to the quality be attached to each entry form of products not winning a ribbon.

The Fair catalogues are available at the County Extension office, Natchez Avenue, Bay St. Louis.

Congratulations to the Homemakers Council for making excellent plans for 1974. Large through the efforts of this dedicated group we are going to have an outstanding year.

Let me make it clear that the problem is not at the local level, but at the national level where bureaucrats still run the show. There is little that a Postmaster in South Mississippi can do when his purse strings are controlled in Washington.

While we need to recognize the fact that the Postal Service is handling more mail than ever, we still cannot overlook the steady decline in service since 1971 when the Postal Service foods that the store just wants to move. Any store that followed that policy would not remain in business long. The purpose of the food ad is to get you into the store, that's true. But the store also wants and needs your repeat business.

Poor quality merchandise would certainly not accomplish that purpose. Weekend food specials are usually priced to save food shoppers 10 to 20 percent.

The low price on "special" sale items is made possible by quantity buying on the part of the store, shaving off the profit margin, or an especially good buy offered to the store by its suppliers. Quality is generally high. Certainly the store would not call your attention to poor quality.

Often a food will be "specialed" because it's in season. In other words, there are liberal supplies of the food and prices are low. When this happens, you find several stores offering specials on the same item. That is a good time to plan to use this particular food often in your menu plans.

LIMITS FOR CHILDREN

All children need and want limits to be set. But these limits should be clearly defined and constant, yet you should be flexible when the need arises. That last statement might seem like a contradiction, but rules can be flexible but constant. For instance, if he can't jump on the couch on Tuesday, he can't jump on Wednesday. However, it's very hard for him to understand why he isn't allowed to eat before supper but his older sister can; or why his feet are not allowed on the couch but Daddy's feet are.

The best and most easily enforced rules are those which have good, sound reasons behind them. Each child needs to know the limits, but he needs to understand why the limits are there. That way he learns to set limits for himself. However, there are some reasons children would not understand and don't need to know; but whoever sets the limit needs to understand why.

Remember - as your child grows, learns and changes, his rules will need to grow and change.

Agencies Shown Use Of Federal Services

How can state government more effectively use technical services available from the federal government? State agencies and insitutions of Mississippi and Louisiana are participating with NASA's Mississippi Test Facility to answer this question. The project is being sponsored by the National Science Foundation under its new Experimental Research and Development Incentives Program.

According to Dr. Byron Chew of Mississippi Research and Development Center, project coordinator for Mississippi, the primary objective of the project is to "bring together state agencies in an organized manner to improve the ability of state government to use technical assistance available from the federal government."

Technical assistance the federal government gives state agencies includes services, facilities, equipment, information, and other resources — including funds for those purposes — of a scientific or engineering nature.

"At the same time we work toward this primary goal," Dr. Chew said, "participating elements of the federal government can gain additional insight into the states' real needs; learn why present programs miss the mark, and discover improved ways of assisting state agencies at the technical level."

The technology transfer study will be conducted over the six-month period from September 1, 1973, through February 28, 1974. The project comprises three phases of approximately two months each.

Phase I will involve an inventory of technical assistance now available to state agencies from the Federal government. In addition, deficiencies in, and barriers to, that assistance will be identified and recommendations for improvements will be made.

GULFPORT - Fiscal 1973 proved to be a banner year for the State-owned Port of Gulfport. During the 12-month period, ending June 30, the Port surpassed the one-million-ton mark in total cargo handled, and showed a net profit of nearly $860,000. Of this amount, $525,000 was used to cover bond payments during the year, leaving a net income of about $335,000.

This is the second year in a row that the Port, which was forced to literally begin again following the on-slaught of Hurricane Camille, has been able to meet its bonded indebtedness and still show an impressive profit.

BILOXI - A program of information and new ideas on Mental Health is scheduled for the annual meeting of the Mississippi Association for Mental Health, October 18 and 19, at the Sheraton of Biloxi.

A tour of mental health facilities on the Coast, including the new Coastal Mental Health Center now under construction in Gulfport, is included on the agenda.

JACKSON - Twenty-four wastewater treatment plant operators representing 19 Mississippi cities and towns have completed a laboratory methods short course established by the Mississippi Air & Water Pollution Control Commission to upgrade operators throughout the State and help them toward certification.

Conducted last week as two-three-day session in the Commission's laboratory located at the University of Southern Mississippi, the course offered operators instruction in sampling techniques, metric system computation, and testing procedures.

State News

In Brief

School Lunch program for the Mississippi State Department of Education announced that a "universal menu" would be served to the 435,000 Mississippi School children October 17.

GULFPORT - The Southern Mississippi Planning and Development District has been awarded a $20,000 grant from the Mississippi Council on Aging for area-wide planning for the elderly in the 15 counties served by the District. The grant is to be matched by $6,666 in funds from the local area to be served.

Joint announcement of the grant was made this week by Horace L. Kerr, executive director of the state Council on Aging, and Leslie Newcomb, executive director of the planning and development district.

John W. Lovitt, group services coordinator for the District, has been appointed project director.

Under terms of the grant, the District will develop a plan to meet the needs of elderly people in Covington, Forrest, George, Greene, Hancock, Harrison, Jackson, Jefferson, Davis, Jones, Lamar, Marion, Pearl River, Perry, Stone, and Wayne counties.

JACKSON - "Every effort is being made to guarantee a dependable supply of propane gas for home and agricultural purposes" this winter, Governor Bill Waller assured Mississippi propane users last week.

The Governor announced that a fully operational fuel and energy office has been opened to administer the mandatory propane allocation program announced by President Nixon last week.

Games Slated At OLA

Our Lady's Academy will be the scene of a commencement exercise and intramural games this Saturday from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. Girls from grades seven through 11 will participate in the events which will include a volleyball tournament, kick pin and "cabbage" ball.

The commencement exercise will be conducted by the student council with flag ceremony and opening presentation speech by student council president Barbara Marchino. The intramural games will follow. Individual awards will be presented for sportsmanship as well as selection of an all star team following the games.

Intramural games will be held in the St. Joseph Gym. A 25 cent admission charge will be collected and refreshments served. The public is invited to attend.

Children's Art Contest

Part Of Funorama

School-age and pre-school children may enter original art work in a special Children's Art Contest planned as a segment of Altrusa Club of Gulfport's Funorama October 13, according to Funorama Chairman Mrs. Vermella McDonald.

Trophies in three categories for school-agers will be awarded at 3 p.m. October 13, Mrs. McDonald said. Pre-school art work will be judged separately.

Contest rules are as follows:

1. Entries limited to painting and sketching.

2. Entries on unlined paper, not over 12"x14"; unframed.

3. Entries submitted in person at old Louisville and Nashville railroad station, Site of the Funorama, between 10 a.m. noon October 13.

4. Entries must be original, may be on any subject, in any form.

5. Entrants will be questioned.

6. Name, address, telephone number and age of entrant must be plainly marked on back of entry.

7. Decision of judges shall be final.

In Loving Memory of Paul and Thelma Henley on their birthday.

Your birthdays have come again.

The day I loved so well. But you are not with me today.

Our love for you to tell. No presents now just flowers.

Upon your grave to lay In tears I pray to meet again in heaven above some day.

Sadly missed by Mother and Daughter

IN MEMORIAM

IN LOVING MEMORY OF JOHN H. HILL Died Oct. 1, 1972

It seems like a dream that God called you to Him, but He knows best.

The days are so lonely without you.

We love and miss you very much.

Sadly missed by WIFE, DAUGHTER, MOTHER AND FAMILY

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express our deep appreciation to Dr. John Levens, Rev. O. H. Buckley, Rev. R. H. Crawley, Riemann's Funeral Home. The Lakeshore Baptist Church, friends who brought food, the community for the beautiful flowers and our many friends who did so much to help us.

A special thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Patterson, Mesdames Katie Smith, Doris Richards, Carole Mitchell, Ollie Seay, Mary Ann Mayne, John Raoul, C.C. Neubig, Bert Evans, Joyce Ladner, Lakeshore Baptist Church, choir, Clarence Garcia, the Hancock County Sheriff's and Waveland Police Departments and many others for their kindness and thoughtfulness during the illness and death of our husband and father.

God bless each and every one of you.

THE JOHN M. RUSSELL FAMILY

A six-member jury remained deadlocked after a relatively short deliberation Tuesday night in a peace justice court hearing for Charles Wendell Williams, resulting in the judge's decision for retrial.

Williams, arrested Sept. 27 with three juveniles in a Waveland motel room, was charged with possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia and contributing to the delinquency of minors.

During the jury trial, requested by the defendant, arresting officers Sheriff's Deputies Ronald Peterson and Paul Bernard testified that they had acted on information supplied by a "reliable informer" that "a pot party" would be in progress in the motel room the night in question.

Although they had been given a door key by the motel manager, deputies broke a chain lock on the door to gain entry, after standing outside and detecting the "unmistakable smell of marijuana smoke coming from the room," Peterson testified.

Williams was arrested along with two 16-year-old boys and a 15-year-old Bay St. Louis girl. The juveniles have been referred to Youth Court authorities.

In the hearing, Williams stated that he had no prior knowledge of any drug activity at the motel and had gone there only to bring one of the youths to pick up his car.

Deputies found some of the marijuana and the paraphernalia on a table in the room and one of the boys was holding a small amount in his closed fist. Neither Williams nor the other juvenile boy and girl were found to have any illegal articles on their persons.

As the law requires a unanimous verdict from a justice of the peace court and Tuesday's jury was split three to three, Peace Justice Joseph Dobson declared a mistrial. Retrial has been set for Tuesday night, 7:30 p.m.

Jolivette, Bradley Are Semifinalists

Bay St. Louis and Pass Christian high school students have been named among the 1,400 Semifinalists in the Tenth National Achievement Scholarship Program for Outstanding Negro Students, it was announced by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Murray G. Jolivette, St. Stanislaus student, and Gene L. Bradley of Pass Christian High School were designated semifinalists from an original 50,000 black students in some 6,000 high schools who took the preliminary scholarship aptitude test-National Merit Scholarship Qualifying test in Oct. 1972. Students compete within six regional groups and the highest scorers are named Semifinalists in numbers proportionate to the black population in each of the six regions.

NMSC administers the annual Achievement Scholarship competition for black students, as well as the National Merit Scholarship Program which is open to all high school juniors who are U.S. citizens. In the nine annual Achievement Scholarship competitions completed, 2,800 black students have won awards valued at $3.3 million.

"One of our goals is to help colleges locate talented black students," says L.C. McMillan, NMSC Vice-President for the Achievement Program. "The recognition and identification of able black youth is an important element in the quality and quantity of black students now receiving the attention of colleges, universities, and organizations that offer scholarships and other financial aid. Secondary schools that enroll these students find themselves on the regular itinerary of admissions and recruitment officers for many institutions."

Some 350 of the students named this week will win Achievement Scholarships in the spring. At least 225 of the awards to be made in 1974 will be National Achievement $1,000 Scholarships that will provide a single payment of $1,000 to the winner next fall, after he enrolls in a regionally accredited U.S. college. About 125 Achievement Scholarships will be four-year renewable awards in 1974, ranging in value from $100 per year to $1,500 per year ($400 to $6,000 for the four college years).

To continue in the competition, Achievement Semifinalists must qualify as Finalists by receiving the endorsement of their schools, submitting information about their academic and extracurricular attainments, and meeting other standard requirements. Over 900 Semifinalists are expected to advance in the competition by becoming Finalists, and only Finalists are considered for Achievement Scholarships.

Also during the meeting committees were selected to draw up constitution for the organization, to select bands for the dances, and to promote membership.

At a board meeting held Oct. 2, the board of directors for the group was selected. They are Prima Luke, Maureen Hennessy, Forrest Stevens, Michael Spoule, Donna Mauffray, Peter Lamb, and Vickie Rugeaux.

The winners of National Achievement $1,000 Scholarships and four-year corporate-sponsored awards will be announced on March 13, 1974. The winners of college-sponsored Achievement Scholarships will be announced on an individual basis, from mid-May through mid-June.

Local Law Officers Set Record For Drug Arrests

In a record-setting week, local law enforcement agents arrested 29 persons on narcotics charges in an eight-day period ending Oct. 8.

Sunday shortly after midnight sheriff's deputies arrested 13 men and women, ranging in age from 19 to 28, in the largest single case of narcotics violation during that period.

The group, all giving New Orleans addresses, were arrested about 1:06 a.m. in a wooded area on the banks of Catahoula Creek near Bienville Church. Deputies seized a plastic bag containing about an ounce of marijuana, a quantity of hashish, several pipes and cigarette papers.

Multiple charges were brought against Dennis B. Dodd, 21, who was booked at Hancock county jail for possession of marijuana, possession of hashish and drug paraphernalia and possession of firearms in a wildlife area.

Also charged for illegal possession of firearms as well as possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia were David Cooper, 23, Alvin P. Adams, 24 and Daniel W. Koblenicki, 26.

The following were booked for possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia and released on bond: Joachin G. Sanchez, 25, William S. Collins, 23, Terry A. Armstrong, 28, Brenda L. Buel, 24, Linette L. Collins, 24, Cheryl E. Goliasinski, 25, Terie D. Lambert, 19, Denise Ann Trahan, 18, and Martha A. Dawes, 22.

A hearing on the case has been set for Tuesday before Justice of the Peace Joseph Dobson.

Arresting officers were Sheriff's deputies - Ronald Peterson, Paul Bernard, Robert Tartavouille, Auxiliary Deputy Leo Woods, Larry Rester and Warren Duthu.

Miss Russell Is Wed To Marvin James

Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church was the setting Saturday, October 6 for the afternoon wedding of Miss Dorothy Dale Russell, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Dan M. Russell, Jr. of Bay St. Louis, Miss., to Marvin Michael James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin James Jr., Baton Rouge, La.

Rev. Schuyler Batson, Emmanuel Baptist Church, Alexandria, La., and Very Rev. Gregory Johnson, pastor Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. John K. McKenna, organist, accompanied Mrs. Theodore Thomas and Joseph E. Vigerie, who rendered a medley of nuptial songs.

Arrangements of white stock and candelabra decorated the altar flanked by potted palms. Arrangements of pale pink lilies, stephanotis and baby's breath decorated the pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight peau de soie Princess silhouette gown. The bodice, encrusted with pearls and jewels, featured an applied Chantilly lace stand-up collar and long bracelet sleeves. Scattered motifs of matching lace appliques reembroidered with clusters of pearls trimmed the bodice, back and sides of the skirt, the hemline and attached chapel length train. Her long veil of candlelight illusion was attached to a Chantilly lace Juliet cap enhanced with tiny pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white sweethearts roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Mrs. Donald Fitts, Jackson, Miss., attended the bride as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Cynthia Engel and Sandy Gann, both of Metairie, La.; Miss Monica James, Baton Rouge, sister of the groom; Mrs. David Karney, Austin, Texas; Mrs. Rhes Lowe, Laurel, Miss., and Mrs. Michael McDonald, San Antonio, Texas.

They wore Bordeaux wine chiffon dresses fashioned with antique ivory lace stand-up collars, lace yokes, long puffed sleeves and long full flowing skirts. Matching lace trimmed the waistlines. They wore gold lockets, gifts from the bride, and flower clusters.

Mr. James attended his son as best man. Groomsmen were Mark Abernathy, Shelby Harris, Chip Mitchell and Robert McCall, all of Baton Rouge, and Ronald and Brian Russell, brothers of the bride, New Orleans.

Following the ceremony a garden reception was held at the Russell home. An arrangement of white flowers on wedding bells floated in the swimming pool and hanging basket arrangements were used as focal points in the garden. Arrangements of minuet roses and baby's breath decorated the reception rooms in the home.

The bride's aunts, Mesdames T. A. Bickerstaff, Oxford, Miss., Daniel Gilchrist IV, Courtland, Ala., Edward Grissom, Starkville, Miss., Paul Frank Sr., Gulfport, T. A. Tudury Jr., Morgan City, La., and Irina Russell, Shreveport, presided at the cake and punch tables.

Mrs. Charles Breath Jr. and Mrs. J. E. Erwin kept the bride's register.

Mesdames Ronald Russell, Joe Reeves, Paul Frank Jr., Alex Smith and Robert Kane and Misses Helen Dees, Rhonda Scholle and Celeste Bland served as tea girls.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to the Hawaiian Islands the couple will reside in Baton Rouge.

PROJECTS DISCUSSED

Edwardsville Extension Homemakers Club met October 2 in the home of Club president Mrs. Edna Poolson with Mrs. Doyle Lee as hostess.

Mrs. Jules Poolson, new member, was introduced.

Projects for the workshops and the coming County fair were discussed, and it was announced the next project will be making Christmas decorations.

Various quilt patterns were displayed by members. The brief business session closed with the thought for the month, "God Gives Us Love; Something to Love, He Lends Us."

There were 11 members attending.

AFTER REHEARSAL DINNER

Mrs. J. E. Erwin and daughter Mrs. James R. Green, honored Miss Dale Russell and her attendants with a bridesmaids brunch Saturday morning at the Carroll Avenue home of Mrs. Erwin.

The table was centered with an arrangement of white flowers with love doves holding wedding rings. The place cards, featuring ceramic napkin rings with the names of the bridesmaids and the bride, and groom were presented to Miss Russell.

Antique gold lockets were given the bridesmaids by Miss Russell.

She wore for the occasion a brown, orange and beige. A corsage of white feathered carnations, a gift of the hostesses, completed her ensemble. The mothers, Mrs. Dan M. Russell Jr. and Mrs. Marvin James, were presented similar corsages.

Another pre-nuptial affair honoring Miss Russell was a linen and bath shower September 28 hosted by Mesdames Eugene Ling, W.W. Webre, Caroline Kiefer and Laurie Byrd.

The honoree chose for the occasion a full length provincial print dress in shades of red and blue fashioned with a white eyelet yoke edged with an eyelet ruffle. A red velvet ribbon accented the lifted waistline. She was given a corsage of red flowers and a king size blanket by the hostesses.

BRIDESMAID'S BRUNCH

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin James entertained with an after rehearsal dinner Friday night at Diamondhead Country Club for their son Michael and Miss Dale Russell who were married Saturday afternoon.

During the evening the couple exchanged gifts and Mr. James presented gifts to his best man and groomsmen.

Miss Russell chose for the occasion a floor length Burgundy velvet dress trimmed with ecru lace.

Orchid corsages were presented by Mrs. James to Miss Russell, her mother, Mrs. Dan M. Russell Jr. and grandmother, Mrs. Theo Tudury.

Guests included members of the families, the bridal party, Rev. Schuyler Batson and Mrs. Batson of Alexandria, La., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vigerie and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Thomas.

HIGHLIGHT of Friday's game between the Hancock-North Central Hawks and the Pass Christian Pirates was crowning of Miss Denise Williams as 1973 Homecoming Queen. Above, 1972 Queen Carolyn Dorman performs the symbolic gesture as Miss Williams' escort, her uncle Lawrence Stockstill, looks on approvingly. Homecoming festivities Friday night helped to soothe the disappointment of the Hawks' defeat on the field.

Our Lady Of The Gulf School News

Our Lady of the Gulf Kindergarten class went on a field trip October 2 to the Bay St. Louis Fire Department.

Fire Chief Richard Fayard met the group and gave them a tour of the department starting with the fire truck. He explained how the equipment on the truck was used and showed the children the firemen's quarters and pictures of the men fighting actual fires. Chief Fayard and his firemen presented each child with a special treat upon leaving.

Accompanying the group were Mrs. Donald Compreta, kindergarten teacher, Mrs. Robert Heitzmann, aide, and Mrs. Robert Compreta, room mother. An educational program on Hazards of Smoking will be presented at Our Lady of the Gulf School student assembly at 1:45 p.m., October 15 in the school cafeteria.

The program will include a lecture, a demonstration of "Smoking Sam," a mannequin the size of a 12 year old boy. A question and answer period will follow.

Our Lady of the Gulf P.T.O. will meet at 8 p.m., Thursday, October 18, in the school cafeteria. Open house will follow the business session at which time parents will have the opportunity to visit the classrooms and meet the teachers.

Sister Patricia Sullivan, principal, has issued a special invitation to all parents, to browse in the learning center and view the many audio-aids and learning devices with which the center is equipped. Mrs. Donald Corr assisted by Mrs. M.J. Gleber will host the social hour.

Mrs. M.J. Gleber, Our Lady of the Gulf room mother chairman, announced the following room mothers were named for the 1973-74 term: Mrs. Robert Compreta, Kindergarten; Mrs. James Thrifley III, 1-A; Mrs. Lawrence Hopkins, 1-B; Mrs. J.E. Lelacano, second grade; Mrs. Harold Helne, third;

News From
Hancock General Hospital

The business office welcomes Evelyn Wilson this week, who replaces Joyce Lee.

Lynn Brown, R.N. and Margaret Harris, L.P.N., attended a workshop at Charity Hospital in New Orleans last week. The topics featured: sickle-cell anemia, pharmacology, and cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

Mrs. Jane Langlum has been the featured speaker for the past two staff development meetings. Her topic of discussion was "Fluids and Electrolyte". An interesting program has been planned for the coming year.

Much interest has been shown in the Advanced First Aid Emergency Medical Technician courses to be offered to residents of Hancock County. The first program will begin October 17, and will be instructed by Ed Friloux.

Leigh Ann Russo Is Bay Hi Homecoming Queen

Leigh Ann Russo, a senior at Bay Sr. High, has been selected to reign as the queen of Bay High's 1973 Homecoming.

Leigh Ann will ride in the Homecoming parade October 19 with her court, Kim Coles and Patricia Robinson, seniors; Sandra Levens and Francis Spotoro, juniors; Bonde Binigar and Terri Lagasse, sophomores. The court will also be highlighted in the largest Homecoming pre-game show Bay High has ever seen.

Bay High is bursting with activity this week constructing floats and preparing for the 1973 Homecoming activities, which this year are under the direction of the student council.

Bay High is kicking off the event with a 27 unit parade which will begin at 2 p.m. October 19. The parade will consist of the court's float, three class floats which will be competing for a first-place plaque, and decorated cars which are all dealing with themes centering around what is considered to be Bay High's most competitive game of the season. The Bay Sr. High and Bay Jr. High Tiger Pride Bands will perform in the parade also.

Bay High spirit is high in anticipation of the parade, the pep rally following at the Jr.

High, and the ceremonies that night; all leading up to the Tigers' contest against the St.

Stanislaus Rock-a-Chaws.

Bay Hi Tigers Still Undefeated After Friday Game

By Edward Favre. The extra point attempt from placement by Sam Piazza was unsuccessful as they downed the Red Rebels of Harrison Central 14-6 last Friday night.

The Tigers scored in the first period on a seven-yard pass from quarterback Mike Magee to Anthony Summers.

With 2:59 left in the game Hubert Seals scored on a five-yard run for the Tigers. The extra point by Piazza was good, making the score 14-0.

Harrison Central put their points on the board in the last 1:09 of the game on a 65-yard pass from quarterback Harry Strickland to Willie Williams.

The two-point conversion attempt failed, making the final score 14-6.

The victory gives the Tigers a 2-0 Conference record, with a 4-0 over-all record.

This week the Tigers travel to Long Beach to play the unbeaten Long Beach Bearcats in another Gulf Coast Conference Game.

Ocean Springs Defeats Stanislaus

By Edward Favre
The Ocean Springs Greyhounds handed the St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws their second Gulf Coast Conference defeat of the season, last Friday night at Rock-A-Chaw Stadium.

The first half of the game was scoreless until the final 40 seconds, when the Greyhounds scored on a hand-off from quarterback Mike Bruno to Wes Jennings from two and a half yards out. The extra point attempt by Danny Oller was no good and the first half ended with the Greyhounds leading 6-0.

The Rocks were unable to put together a scoring threat in the first half.

Earlier in the first half the Greyhounds threatened when they had the ball at the Rocks 14 yard line, but the Stanislaus defense tightened and held.

Stanislaus threatened early in the third period when they drove all the way down to Ocean Springs seven yard line. With fourth down and five yards to go, quarterback David Wier fumbled and Mike Harper of the Greyhounds recovered the ball at his own 12-yard line.

With 14 seconds gone in the final period, Stanislaus put a score on the board when quarterback Wier passed to Johnny Knight for 35 yards and a TD. The two-point conversion attempt failed and the score was knotted at 6-6.

Ocean Springs got what proved to be the winning TD with 5:52 left in the game on a 37-yard pass from quarterback Lewis Meaut to Edwin Wallace. The extra point attempt from placement by Joe Johnson was good, giving the Greyhounds a 13-6 lead.

Stanislaus started moving the ball again in the final minute of the game and drove all the way down to the Greyhounds 15 yard line when the final whistle sounded.

Stanislaus 3-2, will travel to Pass Christian this week to play the Pass Christian Pirates.

THE NIGHT BRIGHTENERS

for fun, safety, convenience, beauty

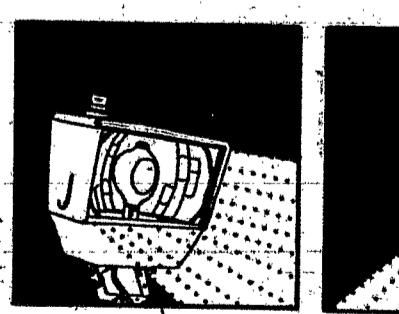

Light up your home or business at night and increase the hours for fun and profit. Outdoor lighting can mean more time for family recreation; better security at night; longer hours for customer shopping; less chance of accidents and a new dimension of beauty for landscaping and buildings.

COMPLETELY AUTOMATIC, NO MAINTENANCE, LOW COST

You can enjoy modern outdoor lighting at your home or business, and the price begins at $3.40, plus tax, per month, depending on the system you choose. Monthly cost includes installation of the lighting fixture, electricity used, automatic operation, lamp replacement, and complete maintenance. Outdoor lighting can be custom designed to fit your own special needs. And it is completely automatic — on at dusk, off at dawn.

CHOICE OF NIGHT BRIGHTENERS

Based on your particular requirements, we can provide a security light fixture, similar to a mercury vapor street light, or a floodlight fixture. Both are ideal for lighting back yards, patios, parking lots, buildings, etc.

For more information about outdoor lighting at your home or business, call or visit your nearest Mississippi Power Company office. You will be pleased at how easy and economical it is to light the night with one of our modern "night brighteners."

Bay-Waveland Yacht Club finished second in the Annual GYA Wadewitz Regatta at Fairhope, Alabama, October 6 and 7, only ½ of a point behind Pensacola Yacht Club, the 1972 winner of the Wadewitz Trophy.

Although the breeze was very light and variable, it was a beautiful sunny week-end for the record 106 boats participating in the three-race series on Mobile Bay.

Saturday morning's opening race was a tough one, sailed in extremely light fluffy air. Rick Zern of Pensacola Yacht Club finished first in the eight boat GYA Flying Scot Class. Bubby Eagan finished fifth for Bay Waveland with Mary Kergosien and Woody Steffel crewing.

In the second race Saturday afternoon, Marc Eagan skippered for BWYC with Mary Kergosien and Chris Steffel crewing. Eagan got off to an early lead which he steadily increased in true Eagan style throughout the long course till he finished well ahead of the rest of the fleet. Pensacola Yacht Club's George Hayne was third placing them two points ahead of BWYC.

Woody Steffel sailed the final race Sunday morning with Mary Kergosien and Chris Steffel crewing. From a fifth position at the start, Steffel worked his way up to second as he passed Pensacola at the windward mark, then fought for position on the long downwind leg before he pulled ahead to win the race for Bay Waveland. But Jim Stitt of Pensacola Yacht Club accrued enough points with second place finish to win overall for PYC.

FINAL STANDINGS:

Bay Waveland Yacht Club members who cheered on the team at the Wadewitz Regatta were Commodore and Mrs. Ray H. Steffel, Jr., Flying Scot Chairman Bill Watts, Race Committee Chairman Pete Morrill, Mrs. Henry B. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Benvenuti. Most of them enjoyed the hospitality of Fairhope Yacht Club's Commodore George Fuller on his household "Merry Anne" as they followed the races.

Weekend news of interest was the Russell-James wedding in Bay St. Louis.

Among out-of-town guests of the bride's parents, Judge and Mrs. Dan Russell, Jr., were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin James and their daughter, Monica, of Baton Rouge. Sen. James Eastland, former Governor and Mrs. Paul Johnson and Congressman and Mrs. Trent Lott.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shelton entertained Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Strasberger last Saturday evening at a dinner party in their Kona Villa Condominium.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Valentino of New Orleans are new weekend residents in Lakeside Villa. They have two lovely daughters, 13 and 16.

Close friends of the Valentinos purchased a condominium in the same unit. They are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Canniff of New Orleans, and have one daughter, Lisa, age 11.

Welcome to all of you. They come in every weekend and have been attending the supper club dances and other events.

A welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cook of Houston, Texas who moved into their new home recently. They have four children, Susan, 16, JoAnn, 15, Sandy, 13, and Jeff,

The teachers attended "Teachers Institute" meeting in Jackson Friday. The PTA board members and Father Pierre attended "The Workshop" meeting in Jackson Saturday. These meetings proved very interesting.

There will be a PTA board meeting Wed., Oct. 10 at 7:30 p.m. At the last PTA meeting the free-tuition drawing was won by Mr. and Mrs. Royce Shiyu. The "split the pot" ($7.12) was won by Mrs. Gallagher.

Our boys defeated North Bay last Thurs. 24-2. Best offense players were Randy Green and Stacey Ladner. Best defensive players were Kyle Haas and Tommy Haas. Randy Green scored two touchdowns. Tom Jordan two conversions. David Burleson one conversion and Cletus Haas one touchdown on a fumble against North Bay.

The boys will play Charles B. Murphy school Thurs., Oct. 11 at 4 p.m. at Annunciation School. On Thurs. Oct. 18 there will be a game with O. L. G.

Our thanks go out to "Big John" Rutherford and all those who helped at the spaghetti dinner last Sun.

Annunciation cheerleaders were chosen and they are: Karen Bilbo, Diane Lacoste, Patchen Green, Marlene Breaux, Monica Jordan, Dins Woodcock and Ricky Curet.

Attention parents....The regular PTA meeting will be held Wed., Oct. 10 at 7:30 P.M. in the school gym.

C.G. AUXILIARY MEETS IN F.L.A.

The last quarterly conference of District 8, United States Coast Guard Auxiliary, was held in Panama City, Fla. October 5-7 at the Sheraton Motor Lodge. Those attending from this area were Division Captain Edward H. Huck and Mrs. Huck, General Howard Haines and Mrs. Haines, District Courtesy Motor Boat Examiner Edson Wilcox and Mrs. Wilcox, Flotilla Commander Ansley Phillips and Mrs. Phillips. Vice-Commander Tom Felts and Mrs. Felts.

The meeting was highlighted by an excellent Luau dinner and a breakfast held aboard the United States Coast Guard Cutter "Dependable".

5. Mrs. Cook is a Registered Nurse at Gulfport Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Little of Kona Villa met new friends at the Club Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Jones of Baton Rouge. The Jones are both avid flyers and travel to Diamondhead in their private plane.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Larsen of Baton Rouge spent the weekend in their summer home here having just returned from Collingsville, Illinois. They were the house guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Billieand who presented them with a grandson. Congrats...

Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Koennem, Bay St. Louis, purchased a condominium in Lakeside Villa.

Mrs. Anthony P. Musso and Mrs. Mike McMurry were my dinner guests last Thursday from Covington, La.

The Jerry Petersons of Bay St. Louis entertained Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith at the club Friday evening honoring the Smiths double birthdays at a dinner party. The Smiths are from Rocky Hill, Miss. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Murray, Gulfport.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Berry entertained Mr. Clarence Laughlin, New Orleans author and lecturer at the Club on Sunday. Mr. Laughlin recently spoke at the Science Fiction Convention held in New Orleans. In attendance were Mrs. Debra Fortner of Gulfport and Mr. Berry's sister, Mr. Laughlin has a library collection of more than 15,000 books. He wrote "New Orleans Etc. Living Past (1942) and researched and published "Ghosts Along the Mississippi". On Saturday evening it was entertained at Mrs. Debra Fortner's home in Gulfport, and we all attended his review of "Ghosts Around the House", by Suzy Smith. He chose this book at random from his collection not knowing that there was a chapter in it about a Gulfport home entitled "The Doctors Dilemma" formerly owned by Dr. Gregory.

Mrs. John Lowko, Mrs. Carl Greaves, Mrs. Greaves' mother, visiting from Canada and Mrs. Little Illich of Biloxi attended the Mobile Dog Races last Saturday.

Jack Brewer has opened the Standard Service Station at the Diamondhead entrance, and effective Oct. 11, The Sea Coast Echo may be purchased there for your convenience.

LION GRIDDERS—These three Southeastern Louisiana University gridders will be set for action Saturday night when the Lions return home to host nationally ranked Northwestern State University. The Lions include, kneeling, Sonny Depre of Waveland, and, standing, quarterback Gene Estapa of Bay St. Louis and Jay Lang of Pass Christian.

Injuries Spell Defeat For Hawks

By Edward Favre

The Hancock North Central Hawks were defeated Friday night at Hawk Field 29-0 by the Pass Christian Pirates in a Pascagoula River Conference football game.

In the first quarter the Pirates got on the scoreboard when Thomas Boyd carried the ball over from 13 yards out and then made good on the two-point conversion by Boyd. The first period ended with the Pirates leading 8-0.

Mark Jenkins scored the Pirates second TD of the game in the second period on a two-yard run. Hilton Swanner took the ball in for the two-point conversion making the score 16-0 at halftime.

Boyd scored his second TD of the game in the third quarter on a nine-yard run. Billy Matkin kicked the extra point, making the score 23-0 at the end of the third period.

The final Pirate score came in the fourth period when quarterback Perry Jenkins scored from two-yards out. The extra point attempt failed, making the final score 29-0.

A PROGRAM FOR THE CONTROL OF ALCOHOLISM IS BEING CONDUCTED BY THE COAST MENTAL HEALTH CENTER - A UNITED FUND AGENCY.

The Hawks, with key players injured, were unable to threaten the Pirates during the game.

North Central, 1-4, will travel to St. Martin this week to play the St. Martin Yellow Jackets.

Senior Citizens Happenings

This fall seems to be a great season for picnics. The Pearlington area Seniors will meet Wednesday, October 17, at the Pearlington Community Building for their picnic. Anyone needing more information should call Mrs. Irma Cuevas at 533-7945.

The Kiln area Seniors have planned their picnic for Thursday, October 25. Supervisor Jimmy Travirca has made arrangements to use a picnic area on Rotten Bayou. Follow these directions to get there: Going east, turn right off Fenton Road at Fenton Church (Behind the Fenton Voting Precinct). Go all the way to the end of this road to where it meets Rotten Bayou. Supervisor Bully Zengarling is providing the soft drinks, and everyone plans to bring his own bag lunch.

A large and enthusiastic group turned out last week for the first meeting of the new sewing class, which is being sponsored by the American Association of Retired Persons at the Senior Citizens Center. Mrs. Agnes Chevis began the six weeks' Dressmaking course with a lesson on how to read a pattern. She noted that it was very important for everyone to be ready to sew next week because the course will be completed in only six weeks.

The class meets every Wednesday at 9:00 a.m., and it offers practical ideas for everyone from the beginner to the experienced seamstress.

Last week's Soul Lunch was greatly enjoyed by everyone. Mattie Sams and her assistants Eugenia Benoit, Lucy May Chapman, Henrietta Edwards, and Sarah Williams cooked chicken, turnip greens, black-eye peas, and cornbread for 107 Seniors. Donuts for dessert were donated by the Waveland Bakery. E. C. Colling played the piano during the lunch, and everyone enjoyed a round of games afterwards.

For the past few months visitors to the Center have enjoyed the Bay St. Louis oil paintings of Carl Baldenhofer. Now everyone will be able to see them at Mr. Baldenhofer's one-man show October 15-19 at the W. A. McDonald furniture showroom on Main Street. Included are paintings of some well-known and some known-only-to-natives scenes of Bay St. Louis.

The continuing Rummage Sale sponsored by the Senior Citizens will be open on TUESDAYS and THURSDAYS only from 9:00 to 11:30 at the Main Street United Methodist Church. Anyone having rummage to donate should bring it during sale hours if possible.

Jaycee Bowl Date Set

The Bay St. Louis Jaycees have announced the date of the fourth annual Jaycee Bowl. The bowl game will be held on November 16 at Tiger Stadium in Bay St. Louis. The teams will be announced at a later date.

As in the past proceeds from the bowl game will be used to provide three scholarships for area students. One scholarship will be given to a student in each of the three high schools in Hancock County.

Chairman for this year's Bowl Game is Larry Burge and co-chairman is Jay Lagasse. Any girls who are seniors in high school and would like to participate in the Bowl Game Queen Contest are asked to contact Mr. Burge at 467-9668 or Mr. Lagasse at 467-7400.

Salt water fishing has been pretty good all the way from Bayou Caddy to the mouth of East Pearl River which includes Bayou Boland, Three Oak Bayou, Red Fish Bayou and Outer Campbell where red fish, croakers, flounders, ground mullet and some speckles are being caught. Hard Crabs are also being gotten with nets and traps.

Green trout fishing is improving with waters again becoming clear. As stated before bass fishing will get better with cooler weather. Underwater baits will be best from now on. Although surface baits can be used on the fly and casting rods when the water and weather stays warm. Perch fishing usually shows up during winter months.

The teal duck season is over as well as the first segment of the dove season. Fishermen will go back to fishing until November when the hunting for squirrel starts. Geese hunting is next on the agenda; followed by duck and other fowl hunting a little later.

Maurice C. Salvant, Sr. of Gulfport is an ardent fisherman. He does both fly and salt water fishing. His business slogan is "If it's worth selling it's worth advertising" and as for fish "if they are worth eating they are worth keeping."

Sal Bivalarul from Chalmette, La., while fishing with his uncle, retired New Orleans Police Sgt. Edward Alley caught a 5-pound drum at the Keys. The above men are friends of B.F. Gillespie of Bay St. Louis.

Raymond Heitzmann was proudly showing off his four lb. bass (green trout) which he caught up Pearl River the other day. It was a beauty. Raymond catches plenty bass in this neck of the woods at the Test Site.

Bill Schaefer and Patrick Green both fish. Patrick is a brother of Uncle Vic Green, one of our local fishermen.

Thurmon Parker and Terry Necale said they had a week of fishing. Didn't do too hot they claimed. Must not been where the fish were fellows?

Gerald Tomash is eagerly awaiting the opening of the squirrel season. Gerald gets his share of squirrel each year. He is from the Bay.

Mrs. George Cuevas is one of our best lady anglers. Has been at it a long time. She has been catching green trout, red fish and sheepshead. Even catches soft crabs and flounders when they are giving. Hard to keep her out of the water.

It was reported that Teal duck hunting ranged from excellent to extremely poor during the first week of the current teal season in Louisiana.

"It was pointed out that a recent aerial survey of coastal marshes below U.S. Hwy. 90 and in the rice fields of southwest Louisiana showed a substantial increase of blue-winged teal during the past two weeks and that estimates indicate that a half-million teal were on hand for the opening weekend of the season, the vast majority being in southwest Louisiana," La. Wildlife & Fisheries Magazine.

Teal duck hunting in Miss. wasn't too hot either, it was reported.

About time we hear from Willard Peterson and Dick Mestayer regarding dove hunting up Willard's way. We are waiting for the second segment to open, fellows.

Do you like duck calling? The New Orleans Sportsmen's League International Duck Calling Contest will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 24th at Germon-Brown Center on Harrison Avenue, N.O. Registration will be at 7 p.m. with prizes awarded. Enter and find out how good you are.

Went fly fishing with Al Leddy the other day. No fish. Water too dirty and too much grass. Al loves to catch fish when things are right. Will try it again partner.

E. Pratt and Eddie Marquez made a fishing trip in front of Eddie's place on the beach. In the excitement the boat overturned. There was no damage done except a good soaking. No fish either.

Caused plenty talk later, after they dried out.

Walter and Henry Gonzales and their sons, Steve and Hank caught 65 big speckle trout over the weekend near the Legion Pier by wading in the water. They used Shad Rigs. All trout averaged better than 2 pounds. Both brothers are from New Orleans and spend their weekends at the Bay.

Sam Naglazzo and Ralph Fredericks made a nice catch of speckles over by Grassy Point near Wolf River. Ralph said Sam did a good job showing him how to bring 'em in.

Joe Cook Kellar is also waiting to go squirrel hunting. Joe has been hunting for years and good at getting the bushy tails. Claims he can get his share.

At the rate speckles are moving in they should be up Jourdan River soon. It's a lot of fun trolling for them. Even better when they are caught by casting. A Shad Rig usually pays off.

Don't hear much about Nickie, Keene, and Ronnie Rauret, David Carter and Willymitis. They are our younger hunters and fishermen. Let's hear from you fellows. Must be too busy working.

Harris Bourgeois reported catching a few big shrimp down on the seawall at Cedar Point lately. Must be running.

This will be good news for those who like to use a cast net.

Everyone must have caught speckles over the weekend. Teddy Bilbo, Mike Fayard and Joey LeBlanc all of Bay St. Louis caught 37 speckles in 2 hours. Sunday morning at Clermont Harbor. They were wading. Don't know what kind of bait they were using.

Most of the local lakes and ponds hereabout are no good for fishing at this time of the year. They are mostly shallow and full of grass.

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK — John Rogach says he doesn't do as much fishing as he does eating fish, especially croakers, his favorite. John commutes to New Orleans from his home here on the coast.

Met Frank LaRosa of Pass Christian the other day. Long time no see. Frank now resides at the Bay.

Sorry to hear of the death of Ken Waltman. He suffered a heart attack while playing golf Saturday afternoon at Pass Christian Isles Golf Course.

Most of the speckle trout being caught out front in the Bay are being gotten in shallow water. They are not way out. They are feeding on small minnows according to those catching them.

Society

Inspects

Shelters

Bay-Waveland Humane Society, after a permitted inspection of the Bay St. Louis dog shelter, located on Third Street, and the Waveland shelter, reported two dogs were in the Bay shelter and 13 in Waveland.

Mrs. James McFie, secretary for the Society, said the animals, of all ages, sizes and breeds, are in need of homes, and, if homes are not found by Friday, the animals will be put to death.

Anyone interested in taking the animals can contact Mike Bailey, Bay St. Louis animal warden at 467-9221, or Ory Bourgeois, Waveland warden, at 467-7853.

Inspections were made by Mr. and Mrs. James McFie and Ory Bourgeois in Waveland and by Mesdames McFie, Lollie Backlund and Marie Hoeffel in the Bay area.

FAN NEEDED

Bay-Waveland Humane Society is in need of a window or oscillating fan for the Bay St. Louis dog shelter. Anyone who has a fan in good condition to donate is asked to call Mrs. James McFie, Society secretary at 467-9494, or 467-3739 or write care P.O. Box 471, Waveland.
